

Descendants of Owen Dorgan

Owen Dorgan, son of Dorgan, was born about 1798 in Ireland and died in 1868 in County Kerry, IRL about age 70. Another name for Owen was Eugene Dorgan.

General Notes:

According to Mary Dugan's 1914 diary, Owen held a government job and lived on a large estate in the townland of Puckisland in the Minard civil parish, Dingle Registrar's District.. When he died the family was evicted. This does not match information that shows he died in Killeney Civil Parish. The estate was owned by a corporation in Tralee. The estate was called Park Owen after Owen Dorgan. This may have been a local name based on the fact that he once lived there.

Marriage Notes:

In 1861 Patrick and Mary married in Fond du Lac. By the time of the 1870 census, they had 4 children and Mary's mother Catherine was living with them. Patrick worked at the saw mill. In 1880, the family lived on West Johnson St and had added 3 more children. Patrick's occupation was day laborer. The Wisconsin 1895 census lists Pat Dorgan living in a household with two males (Patrick and his son George) and five females, (wife Mary and daughters Katherine, Johanna, Ellen, and Mary Rose). John had died in 1891 and son Patrick was not counted. He was listed in 1900. William is not mentioned again until Mary's death. The 1900 census defines Patrick as a lumber handler. Son Patrick is listed as well as Nellie, Rose, George and May. Mary reported she had given birth to ten children, but only five were still living. Did she mean only 5 were living at home? The 1905 Wisconsin

Mae married Ernest William Wilkowski, son of Louis Ernest Wilkowski and Sophia Etscheid, on Jun 2, 1915 in Fond du Lac, Fond du Lac County, WI. Ernest was born on Aug 15, 1889 in Reeseville, Dodge County, WI, died on Mar 20, 1956 in Paris, France at age 66, and was buried in Calvary Cemetery, Fond du Lac, WI. The cause of his death was heart attack and pneumonia. They had two children: Ernest William "Ernie" and Jean Mary.

Marriage Notes: Ernest is first mentioned in the 1900 census. He lived at 512 Hancock St with his parents and siblings. He graduated from grade school on June 24, 1903 in Watertown, WI. His father died a week later and Ernest went to work as a hotel clerk at the Commercial Hotel. The 1908 Watertown Directory lists Ernest as chief clerk at that hotel. He still lived at home with his mother, brother and sister at 512 Hancock St. In 1910, Ernest had moved to Fond du Lac to work at the Palmer House. He rented a room at 57 S Main St. It is interesting that most of the other lodgers also worked at the hotel.

Mae was born and raised in Fond du Lac, WI into a large Irish Catholic Family. She was the tenth and youngest child. She appears on the census for the first time in 1900. The family lived at 85 Doty St in Fond du Lac. By 1910, Mae's father had died and the family sold the house on Doty St and moved to 75 W Johnson St. Mae worked as a stenographer at the electric company.

Ernest and Mae met at The Palmer House. She was the public stenographer and he was the assistant manager.. They married in 1915 and in 1916, they moved to Rhinelander, where Ernest took over management of the newly constructed Oneida Hotel.

I can't find Ernest in the 1930 or 1940 census, although he should be indexed in Miami according to his daughter. I have a postcard dated 1954 from Miami where he was working at the time. In 1954, they lived at 1438 Alton Rd in Miami Beach. Ernest was working at the Richter Hotel After retirement, Ernest and Mae lived in Florida and spent time with their children in Germany and Paris, France, where he died.

After Ernest died, Mae lived in Miami Fl, Wisconsin, and also visited her daughter at Jean's many diplomatic posts. She died in Rome, Italy.

- Obituary: Glasgow Courier, Aug 25, 2011, Glasgow, Valley County, MT.
Helen Louise Ahlborg Wilkowski was born to Carl and Mildred (Nelson) Ahlborg in Duluth, MN on August 26, 1920, Women's Suffrage Day. She left this earth a finer place on October 17, 2011 at the age of 91. Helen was married to her "flyboy hero", Ernie Wilkowski on September 1, 1945 after a whirlwind romance during his short leaves to Rhinelander, Wisconsin where Helen was an elementary teacher.

During Helen's rich and rewarding life, she was a dedicated military wife for over 30 years and shared exciting tours to Germany and many of our states, including Hawaii where the family helped celebrate statehood shortly after their arrival. Whether she found herself living in a converted barracks or castle, she always transformed it into "home". Helen enjoyed later travels with Ernie as the First Lady for Montana Kiwanis traveling the US and visiting Ireland, Austria and Sweden. Floating the Missouri, camping throughout Montana or spending the summers in the Airstream at Lake Thompson in Wisconsin, Helen loved sharing outdoor adventures with her family.

Helen was an enthusiastic mother, teacher, volunteer and companion. She taught periodically during her lifetime and took on full time teaching when Ernie retired from the military. She was Glasgow's elementary music teacher starting at North Star School at the former Glasgow Air Force Base and then to South Side and Irle schools. Helen instilled the love of music and theatre in her family, grandkids and great grandkids as well as many of Glasgow's youth. She shared her "musical awesomeness" with her family as is evident by the many talented musicians that follow her. Helen was the organist at St. Raphael's Catholic Church for many years and a devoted Circle member. Her final playing days were spent at the Sunshine Square, Valley View Home, where she was reunited with the precious organ she had donated so many years prior.

Helen was a lifelong Red Cross volunteer, Kiwanian "piano player", Board President for Hi-Line Home Program and Regional Council Member for Developmental Disabilities.

She is survived by her children, Mary (Walter) Trogg, Kathleen (Patrick) Handley, Stephanie (Brian) Turnquist, Margaret Wade and Frederick Wilkowski; grandchildren Linda, Theresa, Michael, Christopher, Jesse, Emily, Dylan, Alexander, Erin, Kelly, David, Julia, and Katie, and 18 great grandchildren. Helen is also survived by sisters-in-law, Jean Wilkowski and Mildred Ahlborg and many nieces and nephews. In addition to her husband, Ernie Wilkowski and her parents, she was preceded in death by a sister, Emily Barratt, and three brothers, Raymond, Edmond, and John Ahlborg.

We will always miss the aroma of your molasses or peanut butter cookies and your never to be duplicated Swedish meatballs. Alex Trebeck is raising a toast to you tonight, gracious lady.

Services will be held on November 3rd at St. Raphael's Catholic Church, Glasgow, MT at 10:00 am. Donations will be greatly appreciated to the Fort Peck Fine Arts Council, Glasgow Schools Scholarship Fund or the charity of one's choice.

- Obituary: Glasgow Courier, Aug 25, 2011, Glasgow, Valley County, MT.
Helen Louise Ahlborg Wilkowski was born to Carl and Mildred (Nelson) Ahlborg in Duluth, MN on August 26, 1920, Women's Suffrage Day. She left this earth a finer place on October 17, 2011 at the age of 91. Helen was married to her "flyboy hero", Ernie Wilkowski on September 1, 1945 after a whirlwind romance during his short leaves to Rhinelander, Wisconsin where Helen was an elementary teacher.

During Helen's rich and rewarding life, she was a dedicated military wife for over 30 years and shared exciting tours to Germany and many of our states, including Hawaii where the family helped celebrate statehood shortly after their arrival. Whether she found herself living in a converted barracks or castle, she always transformed it into "home". Helen enjoyed later travels with Ernie as the First Lady for Montana Kiwanis traveling the US and visiting Ireland, Austria and Sweden. Floating the Missouri, camping throughout Montana or spending the summers in the Airstream at Lake Thompson in Wisconsin, Helen loved sharing outdoor adventures with her family.

Helen was an enthusiastic mother, teacher, volunteer and companion. She taught periodically during her lifetime and took on full time teaching when Ernie retired from the military. She was Glasgow's elementary music teacher starting at North Star School at the former Glasgow Air Force Base and then to South Side and Irle schools. Helen instilled the love of music and theatre in her family, grandkids and great grandkids as well as many of Glasgow's youth. She shared her "musical awesomeness" with her family as is evident by the many talented musicians that follow her. Helen was the organist at St. Raphael's Catholic Church for many years and a devoted Circle member. Her final playing days were spent at the Sunshine Square, Valley View Home, where she was reunited with the precious organ she had donated so many years prior.

Helen was a lifelong Red Cross volunteer, Kiwanian "piano player", Board President for Hi-Line Home Program and Regional Council Member for Developmental Disabilities.

She is survived by her children, Mary (Walter) Trogg, Kathleen (Patrick) Handley, Stephanie (Brian) Turnquist, Margaret Wade and Frederick Wilkowski; grandchildren Linda, Theresa, Michael, Christopher, Jesse, Emily, Dylan, Alexander, Erin, Kelly, David, Julia, and Katie, and 18 great grandchildren. Helen is also survived by sisters-in-law, Jean Wilkowski and Mildred Ahlborg and many nieces and nephews. In addition to her husband, Ernie Wilkowski and her parents, she was preceded in death by a sister, Emily Barratt, and three brothers, Raymond, Edmond, and John Ahlborg.

We will always miss the aroma of your molasses or peanut butter cookies and your never to be duplicated Swedish meatballs. Alex Trebeck is raising a toast to you tonight, gracious lady.

Services will be held on November 3rd at St. Raphael's Catholic Church, Glasgow, MT at 10:00 am. Donations will be greatly appreciated to the Fort Peck Fine Arts Council, Glasgow Schools Scholarship Fund or the charity of one's choice.

- Obituary: Plain Dealer, Nov 30, 1998, Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, OH.
F. William Dugan once said there was not "anything more competitive in the world than newspaper advertising."
In a career spanning 47 years at The Plain Dealer, culminating with his leadership as vice president and general manager of the newspaper, Mr. Dugan thrived on that competition and was a financial backbone of the company.
Mr. Dugan, 91, died Saturday at Normandy Manor of Rocky River, where he had lived more than a year.
"I remember him as a fierce newspaper advertising competitor who believed that exceptional service to readers and advertisers was the most effective way of growing circulation and advertising revenue," said

Descendants of Owen Dorgan

Plain Dealer President and Publisher Alex Machaskee. "He was a man of deep commitment to his faith." Mr. Dugan joined The Plain Dealer in 1927, working part time as a classified advertising salesman while attending John Carroll University. Two years later, he began working full time at the newspaper. In 1934, he moved to the retail display advertising department as a salesman, handling financial advertising and later handling accounts of retail apparel and men's shoe stores. He was promoted to retail advertising manager in 1951.

In 1960, he became advertising director and later assistant business manager.

Mr. Dugan was promoted to general manager in June 1961. The title of vice president was given to him the following year.

Thomas Vail, former publisher and editor, president and chairman of The Plain Dealer, called Mr. Dugan an intensely loyal and devoted leader at the newspaper. "He was very conservative in his views and single-minded," Vail said. "He was really a straight arrow. He wouldn't stand for anything that wasn't good for The Plain Dealer. But, he had a great sense of humor, too."

Vail credited Mr. Dugan with his own appointment as publisher and chief executive of the newspaper in 1962. He said Mr. Dugan nominated him to the board of directors although it meant Mr. Dugan would work for a person who was about 20 years younger than himself.

Mr. Dugan was born in Oshkosh, Wis. His father, an accountant, moved the family to Cleveland when he was in the third grade. He later graduated from St. Ignatius High School.

He served in the Army Corps of Engineers during World War II, entering as a private in 1943. He was in three European campaigns, serving in France and Belgium. Later, he was transferred to Okinawa. He left the service as a sergeant in 1945.

Mr. Dugan served as past commander of The Plain Dealer Post of the American Legion.

He was a trustee and member of the executive committee of Catholic Charities Corp., beginning in 1962.

He served as campaign vice chairman in 1970. He also served as district chairman of the appeal's special gifts division and led the annual fund campaign for two years.

He was a member of St. Christopher Catholic Church for more than 50 years and attended daily Mass for many years. He was a member and past president of the Serra Club, a Catholic laymen's organization to further vocations to the priesthood.

Civic minded, Mr. Dugan served as a trustee of John Carroll University and of the Greater Cleveland Hospital Association. He was a member of the Cleveland Advertising Club, the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce and the Westwood Country Club.

He had been a resident of Rocky River for more than half a century.

Surviving are his wife of 63 years, the former Angela Hahn; and a grandson, Michael.

A son, John G., is deceased.

Services will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. Christopher Catholic Church, 20141 Detroit Rd., Rocky River. Arrangements are being handled by Nickels Funeral Home of Lakewood.
